

Martha Hill Legacy Series Form

Educator, administrator, artistic director, and visionary for dance as a performing art, Martha Hill (1900-1995) established an unprecedented standard for excellence in the field.

The Martha Hill Dance Fund, Ltd. (MHDF) is accepting requests from creative and inspiring speakers for its lecture series to conduct one of the following:

- A class, lecture, panel or event celebrating Martha Hill's lifetime achievements or
- An informal 'salon' to introduce the work of Martha Hill

The goal of the legacy series is to:

- Educate and inspire students, artists, teachers and community members about the life and work of Martha Hill
- Reach a broad range of audiences

To help make your event festive, MHDF will contribute $100 that can be used for refreshments, flyers, or for a guest speaker. Be as creative as possible, and know that no event is too small or too large for the series. Martha Hill was an extraordinary leader and visionary, and we believe her work can inspire the next generation of dancers, educators, arts advocates and arts administrators.

Upon completing your event and submitting any documentation, you will receive a $100 honorarium from the Martha Hill Dance Fund, Ltd.

Please return the form below and any documentation to:
